Note To Husbands: Comes Monday evening, Jan. 31, if your wife craves on her coat after dinner and walks out of the house, it doesn't mean she loves you less. It means that for that evening she loves fighting polio more!

Mothers in the area march for polio. They'll march through Riviera from 7 to 9 p.m., looking for lighted porchlights. That's the sign that the folks within want to help her with the fight; want to donate to one of the most worthy of causes.

Co-chairmen of the march this year are Mrs. Thorsten Burman, of 315 Calle de Andaluca, and Mrs. Ross Dorsett, of 151 Via Los Altos. Mrs. Burman has charge of the area from Palos Verdes down to Calle Mayor, while Mrs. Dorsett takes care of territory from Calle Mayor north to the highway. Another lieutenant in the march is Mrs. James Boegh, of Cubana. George Stefan presented the earned awards to his Cubs.

In Den 1, under the leadership of Mrs. Pat Harvey, six boys received awards. Tommy Smith received a gold arrow, while Joe Kelly Simpkins got his silver arrow award as did Philip Dowling and Chipper Whitney. Donald Aselin won his wolf badge and dinner stripes, while David Harvey was awarded his wolf badge and assistant denner stripe.

Den 2, led by Mrs. George McBurney, had five boys in the award column. They were Pat McBurney, who won his assistant denner stripe; Bob Cochran, a silver arrow and webelo headress and badge; and Ed Klien, a wolf badge. Larry Reed and Gary Greer each received a bobcat pin.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Frances Carillo, Den 3 had five boys in the win column. They were Brian Tracy, who won his lion badge; Billy Leitter, chief denner stripe; David Henning, silver arrow and assistant denner stripe; Jack Webb, wolf badge and gold arrow; and John Wyatt, bear badge.

Four boys stepped up for awards from Den 5, led by Mrs. James Eckhart. They were Jim Eckhart, silver arrow; Brett Brady, denner stripes and two-year pin; Vance Stefan, silver arrow; and Tommy Pettipiece, silver arrow.

Four Cubs of 877-C moved into the coveted Webelo ranks, and received their Indian headress and badges. They were Billy Satterlee, Bob Cochran, Carl Carillo and Billy Simpkins.

The Don Whitneys of 509 Calle de Arboles, entertained old family friends Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blatz of Cleveland, O. The agenda included trips, luncheons and sightseeing. While they were here, Whitney flew them over Los Angeles and the Valley on a sightseeing trip in a private plane.

Another recent highlight in the Whitney household was the celebration of their 26th anniversary on Jan. 7, it was a quiet anniversary, with the Blatz and Whitney foursome celebrating the occasion.

NEW NEIGHBOR DEPT.: Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. William E. Raab, who moved into their Riviera home at 337 Calle de Andaluca from their former residence apartment in lower Riviera. They are originally from Chicago, Ill., from where they moved to the apartment they occupied 1111 their move into their new home. They have one daughter, Barbara, 6 1/2. Raab is a salesman for the American Greeting Corp.

A second welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Heath, of 233 Calle de Madrid, who moved here about three months ago from Palos Verdes. They have two daughters, Vickie 6, and Chris 4.

A baby shower was given for Mrs. Heath on Jan. 10, at the home of Mrs. Henry Du Bois, of 282 Calle de Madrid. Centerpiece was a familiar Mr. Stefan, who this time was surrounded by baby pink roses. The Hollywood Riviera Club was transformed into a winter wonderland Saturday, when the Holy Name Society and the Council of Catholic Women of St. James Catholic Church give their annual "Holiday Dance."

Mrs. Harold Henrikson, decoration chairman, provided a winter scene with an abundance of snowballs, snowmen and white balloons to put everyone attending in a party spirit. Informality prevailed. This is one of the largest social functions of the parish and the purpose is to welcome a new member.

Mrs. Dowling reported that white skull caps for bike club members may be purchased at the next bike meet on Jan. 29 at 10:30 at Riviera School. Proceeds from the sale of these caps go to the Riviera PTA, sponsoring body for the bike club.

WE AREN'T ALONE

LA Civil Service Revision Asked By Mayor Poulson

Torrance's city council, which presently is kicking around the civil service laws of the city, is not alone, it seems.

Revolutionary renovations in the make-up of Los Angeles City civil service examining boards, to wipe out the possibility of favoritism, were being drawn up today by three LA commissions.

Mayor Norris Poulson told reporters last week that studies are being made by the 15-members of the city's police, fire and civil service commissions. Poulson said that the joint study, directed by the Civil Service Commission, is aimed solely at the current composition of oral examining boards for fire and police department entrance and promotional examinations.

Study Recommendations
Proposed recommendations for revamping the organization of the oral boards will be considered by the Civil Service Commission at a meeting this week.

Oral examinations for entrance and promotional jobs account for 40 to 50 per cent of the total score, according to a commissioner. Under the present system, used in promotional examinations for police and firemen, the oral exam is conducted by five ranking officers of the particular department.

For higher promotional posts, top ranking fire and police officials from other cities are brought in to conduct the orals, it was indicated. Business, professional, and industrial leaders, selected from a so-called "blue-ribbon" list, comprise the rest of the board.

Entrance oral exams for police and fire aspirants are conducted by three examiners, two of them business or professional men and one of them from the department in which the applicant is seeking a job.

According to the commission, the city charter does not regulate or designate the make-up of the oral boards. That is left to the declaration of the Civil Service Commission.

It is expected that one of the major changes will be in whittling down the number of officers in promotional oral exams, replacing them with civilian examiners.
